

—Evening Press photos by Andy Hickman

GRADUATION FEELINGS—The tearful happiness that accompanies graduation is caught by the camera (inset) as seniors who have just received their diplomas embrace. These pictures were made last night at Grayson Stadium, where Savannah High School graduated a class of 480.

480 Seniors Are Graduated From SHS

Savannah High School awarded diplomas to over 480 graduates last night before a full audience in Grayson Stadium.

Eighteen students were introduced as top honor graduates. Four of these made an all-A average through the four high school years: Harleston Cabaniss, Donald Gray, Helen Holloman and Madelyn Jones.

According to Savannah High's system of ranking honor students, two tied for fifth place: Christopher Bobo and Brenda Bargeran. Two tied for seventh place: James Cain and Patricia Hart. Two tied for ninth: Clem Hall and Michele Zaro.

Four tied for 11th: Cheryl Richman, Edward Simmons, Carlisle Thacker and Raymond Thomas and four tied for 15th: Sherrrie Davis, Judy Nelson, Rupert McLaughlin and John Williams. None of the last 14 students made more than two B's during the four years. All other grades were A's.